Colourful Hanbok & Playful Culture of Korea

Korean Studies at Asia Institute presents Korean cultural events. Please come and experience cultural activities from the past to contemporary Korea!

1pm–5pm, Tuesday 27 & Thursday 29 September

Arts & Cultural Building (Level 2)

Free Admission

Tuesday 27 September

Hanbok, a traditional Korean dress, used to be daily clothes. It has a long history with distinct designs and colours. Discover Hanbok's beauty and learn about the hidden symbols associated with the colours.

Hanbok Lecture (1PM-2PM, Union Theatre):

A story of Hanbok by Miranda Day, an Australian Hanbok designer will be accompanied by models on the stage to represent different colours by age, gender, class and function.

Exhibition and Meet the Designer (2PM-3PM, Common Area):

Traditional Korean wedding costumes and contemporary Hanbok display and Q+A with the designer will concurrently open.

Hanbok Try-On and Photo Time (3PM-5PM, Guild Theatre):

The designer and Korean staff will help with the Hanbok fitting. You can try on Hanbok and take a photo in front of the Korean scenery backdrop.

Thursday 29 September

Following the Hanbok event, playful culture of Korea will be introduced to you. Enjoy the music and make crafts for Hanbok or mobile phone accessories. More fun games for prizes are also available.

Korean Music Workshop (1PM-3PM, Guild Theatre):

Gangarak members will perform and teach Korean percussion.

Korean Crafts Workshop (3PM-5PM, Common Area):

Traditional paper crafts for bookmarks and accessories will be led by Chae-Soon Lee, an enthusiastic Korean craft master.

Korean Games (3PM-5PM, Guild Theatre):

Squid Game lovers? Come and play with Korean staff and win prizes.
